LIFE
APP

RESPECT – Showing others they are important by what you say and do.

DO THIS

MORNING TIME

Send this text or note to your child today: “Respect—showing others they are important by what you say and do. Today is a great day to show respect to others!”

DRIVE TIME

While in the car talk about a time you (the parent) didn't feel respected and how it made you feel. Ask if your child has a story like that. Then follow up with these questions. Who makes you feel the most respected? What do they do or say that makes you feel this way?

MEAL TIME

Ask a kid: Would you rather be president or a rock star? Why?
Ask a parent: If you could have dinner with someone important, who would you choose and why?

BED TIME

Read Matthew 8:5-13. Talk about a person you respect and share the things that you do to show you respect that person. While we're called to respect everyone, the most important person to respect is God! What are some ways you can respect God? Ask God to help you show respect to Him and to all the people around you.
